

DAY ONE

Our tour starts at Central Station, we depart Sydney at 9am for Goulburn, where you may purchase lunch. Then it's back in the coach to head for the wonderful Snowy Mountains. Once you have checked into your hotel unit overlooking Lake Jindabyne, you can come up to our restaurant for a glass of wine before dinner. There you can meet the staff and get to know fellow passengers on the tour. You will then sit down to a hearty three-course meal. After dinner you may relax in your room with TV, join the locals for a drink in the bar, or have a game of pool.

DAY TWO

Today we head off for the mountains, first stop Thredbo Village. You have the option of a chair lift ride or a stroll around the village. From here you board the coach and drive to Bullocks Flat for a look at the one and only famous Skitube of Australia and a delicious morning tea beside the beautiful Thredbo River. Then it is back in the coach for a scenic drive through the mountains looking at Smiggins, Perisher and Charlottes Pass. Here we stop for Lunch while looking over at Australia's highest peak, Mount Kosciuszko. After a big day of all that sight seeing we head back to the hotel.

DAY THREE

Today we pass over the Eucumbene Dam wall on your way to visit the Snowy Hydro System with a visit to the Snowy Scheme Museum at Adaminaby. This is an informative display celebrating the people and the power of the scheme. This peaceful town is where you will also have morning tea. Then it is back on the bus and off to Cooma where you will have lunch in the park before heading to the Snowy Hydro Discovery Centre on the edge of town. You will be given a tour of the facility giving an over view of how the scheme actually works.

DAY FOUR

This is your half day and we make a later start by heading to the Jindabyne Visitors Centre at 9.00 am for a short film and an opportunity to explore the centre. You then hop back on the bus for a short trip to the Gaden Trout Hatchery where you will have a guided tour and discover how cold water sport fish are bred. Then you are off to the Wildbrumby Distillery for free tastings of their locally produced schnapps, gin and vodka. You are also free to wander through their extensive sculpture gardens. It's then back to the hotel for a BBQ lunch on the deck. The afternoon is your time to explore Jindabyne. Being located in the center of town makes it easy to explore, you can also go for a stroll along the concrete footpaths that wind around the lake.

DAY FIVE

Today is one for the history buffs. We head for Cooma Gaol which was constructed from 1870 in local granite and is still a functioning corrective facility today. You will receive a tour of the living museum by suitable inmates. You will have morning tea at the Gaol before travelling through Nimmitabel to Bombala. This is where you will tour historic Burnima House, a victorian homestead. Guests will have lunch in the gardens and then return to Jindabyne via Dalgety, the only town remaining along the banks of the Snowy River.

DAY SIX Today is an early breakfast before setting off for the journey home; we will arrive in Sydney approximately 4.30 pm.
